DETAILED ACTION

This application contains claims 19-39 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No.8. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C.103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C.102 (e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 47 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as obvious over Cellarova et al.as previously stated (paper 9, page 3).

Art Unit: 1661

Applicants' arguments filed on June 16, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that Cellarova et al. are not teaching adding any additives to the basal medium, as well they are not teaching a plant with elevated additives of interest. Callarova et al. disclose a plant grown in medium comprising additive such as Ca and Zn. This plant grown in medium comprising these additive will contain a more elevated level of these nutrients than if grown on a basic medium. As a plant grown in soil contain more microelement than a plant grown in distilled water, for example.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-18, 40, 42-48 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stojakowska et al. in view of Murthy et al. and further in view of Cellarova et al. as previously stated (paper 9, page 3).

Applicants' arguments filed on June 16, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that Stojakowska et al. do not teach that parthenolide was added to the medium. Stojakowska et al. do not teach that parthenolide was added to the medium but a liquid MS medium comprising microelement such as Fe, Cu, Mn, Zn, etc. These additives are up taken by the plant. Applicants argue also that there is no teaching of a method for in vitro micropropagation and phytofortification of a phytopharmaceutical plant. The method for in vitro micropropagation and phytofortification is the preamble of the claim and cannot be considered a limitation. Applicants also argue that Murphy et al. do not teach the accumulation of mineral ions due to thidiazuron see document (page 273, column 1, TDZ and stress). Applicants also argue that thidiazuron is not use in the medium employed in the presently claimed method, whereas claims 7,8 disclose a medium with plant growth regulator having cytokinin activity selected the group consisting of thidiazuron.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Conclusion

Claims 1-18 and 40-48 are rejected.

Claim 41 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
